Accommodations

Miller-Ranch has guest accommodations available Guesthouse and Apartments

Option1, 5 Double Bedroom Guest House

For guests there is a very cozy and comfortable Guest House which features 5 double bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, a large living room with large dining and breakfast area, TV seating area, and a spacious kitchen for the cooking enthusiast. A surrounding patio with seating invites you to relax and watch the horses on the ranch as well as some spectacular sunsets and sunrise.

Care, knowledge and preparation

Before you begin a ride, and depending upon your riding skills, you will be matched to a Miller-Ranch Fox Trotter. You will be briefed on some riding techniques in both the Round Pen and The Arena. An initial introductory "test" ride into the Sonoran Desert will follow.

Now you are ready to FOX TROT, you choose where!

For those groups who choose a multi-day ride, Miller-Ranch loads the horses into trailers, prepares the Chuck Wagon that is packed full of supplies, hot /cold water and a shower...we're ready to go. Wherever you choose to ride, the Missouri Fox Trotters will quickly show you what they can do. Expect to discover the Flat Foot Walk, Fox Trot and Gallop all while enjoying the fantastic nature of Arizona or Utah. You can be sure, the Missouri Fox Trotters will provide you an unforgettable experience and a dream come true for every rider and photographer.

Back at camp, after we take care of the horses, you can look forward to a refreshing shower, then pick up the aroma of a thick juicy steak cooking on the grill. In the evening after dinner we get together to relax around the campfire and exchange our adventure experiences from the day's ride, and then take time to pause and reflect that you are under a huge star tent where you can allow your soul to dangle far away from the world you know, to explore thoughts of another star spangled unknown world beyond.

You only live once - and once you should fulfill this dream... Lothar Rowe
